

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THE nucleus of the Library of the Public Record Office was the collection of books formed by the Commission on the Public Records, which expired in December, 1836. This collection was eventually made over to the Public Record Office established by the Act 1 and 2 Vict. c. 94. To this were added from time to time books formerly belonging to Government departments, and removed with their records, including some considerable (but imperfect) collections of bound Sessional Papers. In 1854, the books of the State Paper Office were incorporated with those of the Public Record Office.

The first edition of the Catalogue was printed in 1869, and the second in 1881. Between those dates, the Library was considerably augmented by the accumulation of official publications such as Acts of Parliament and Sessional Papers, and especially by the publications of the Rolls Series and the series of Public Record Office Calendars, and by grants of publications from Foreign Governments. The proceedings of certain learned societies were acquired by presentation or by exchange, and a few works based on record evidence were presented by their authors.

The Library thus formed was housed in 1881, partly in the Literary and Government Search Rooms, and partly in certain passages and rooms. About 1885, when the Rolls Court ceased to be used for judicial purposes, bookshelves were placed on the floor and in the gallery, and the Library remained there until the demolition of the Rolls House. At the same time a partial re-arrangement of the volumes was made and the system of references in the previous catalogues became obsolete. When the new block of buildings in Chancery Lane was built, it included a library, which was divided into two parts, intended respectively as a reference room and a book-store. Since the removal of the books to these new quarters in 1895, many additions have been made, partly by the purchase of recent books through the Stationery Office, and partly by the special allocation of funds by the Treasury for the purpose of providing the books of reference required for the work of the department. The effective value of the Library has thus rapidly increased during the last few years.

The removal of the books from Rolls House was made the occasion for a complete re-cataloguing of the collection. A revision of the old Catalogue was not possible, owing to the change in the arrangement of the books, which have now been roughly classified according to the subject and period dealt with. The number of books in the Library amounts to about twenty-two thousand volumes.

As the Library exists for special purposes, the Catalogue has been made to include cross-references to historical papers printed in the English Historical Review, the Harleian Miscellany, and Maseres Tracts. References have also been inserted to individual English Chronicles, printed in certain collections, such as that of Gale. These have been borrowed from Potthast's Bibliotheca Historica.

The Catalogue has been compiled by Mr. T. Craib, under the supervision of Mr. C. Johnson, M.A., of this Department.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V. by Thomas Walsingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the 3rd volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I. : an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Balliol, 1291-1292, also attributed to William Rishanger, but on no sufficient ground : a short Chronicle of English History, 1292 to 1300, by an unknown hand : a short Chronicle Willelmi Rishanger Gesta Edwardi Primi, Regis Angliæ, with Annales Regum Angliæ, probably by the same hand : and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1285 to 1307.

In the 4th volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1259 to 1296 : Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1323, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1323, 1324, by Henry de Blaneforde : a full Chronicle of English History, 1392 to 1406 ; and an account of the Benefactors of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 15th century.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbots of St. Albans, 793 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walsingham : with a Continuation.

The 8th and 9th volumes, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle, probably of John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbots Whethamstede, Albon, and Wallingford.

The 12th volume contains a compendious History of England to the reign of Henry V., and of Normandy in early times, also by Thomas Walsingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

The earlier portion, extending from 732 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.
